In addition to the regular training fees, each student of Earl Grey Midwest Karate must register with J.K.A. Canada. These fees are a once a year membership fee which comes due October 1st each year.

Due to new Insurance rules all members must complete a 2025 JKA form, or they are not able to go on the Dojo floor

MEMBERSHIPS & AFFILIATES:

Earl Grey is an affiliate club of Midwest Karate. The chief instructor of Midwest Karate is Sensei Jerry Marr, who has been involved with Martial Arts in Winnipeg for more than 65 years.

Japan Karate Association. International of Canada

JKA is a technical body that oversees grading and certifications. The yearly $40.00 membership fee also covers the cost of insurance. First time members must pay an additional $10.00 for the Passport Book which brings the total fee to $50.00. The Passport Books are a personal record of the member's karate history and will contain a record of the member's ranking, seminar attendance, technical qualifications (Officials, Instructors, etc.).

PLEASE NOTE: Those who train regularly (or occasionally) at Earl Grey Karate, must be registered with Midwest Earl Grey Traditional Karate or registered with Marr Sensei, Midwest Karate. You must also be a JKA member in good standing. If you are not registered with Earl Grey and wish to participate, please speak with Sensei McKenzie
